

For over 60 years.

ONE MESSAGE.

"... THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST, THE SON OF GOD." —Mark 1:1

"None of these [tribulations] move me; nor do I count my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God." —ACTS 20:24

Franklin Graham brings the Good News of Jesus Christ to Sapporo, Japan, during the Hokkaido Festival of Hope.

DEAR FRIEND,

Only one message is powerful enough to bring hope in every situation. Only one message can transform people's hearts and bring hope to the nations of the world. Only one message can bring hope out of despair. Only one message truthfully offers salvation.

Only one—the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Since 1950, the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association (BGEA) has preached this message in every way we know how and to everyone we can. Each day, about 150,000 people slip into eternity—the vast majority unprepared; "dead in trespasses and sins" (Ephesians 2:1). We sense the urgency of the hour—to proclaim the Gospel in every way possible, because the day of the Lord is near (see Obadiah 1:15).

Please pray that we will remain faithful in these extraordinary opportunities that come from God's hand. The eternal results belong to Jesus Christ with all glory and praise, for He is "the Lord of the harvest" (Matthew 9:38).

The following pages will give you a glimpse of what God has done around the world in 2014 through the proclamation of His Word. We are thankful to you for your partnership as we "stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel" (Philippians 1:27). May God richly bless you.

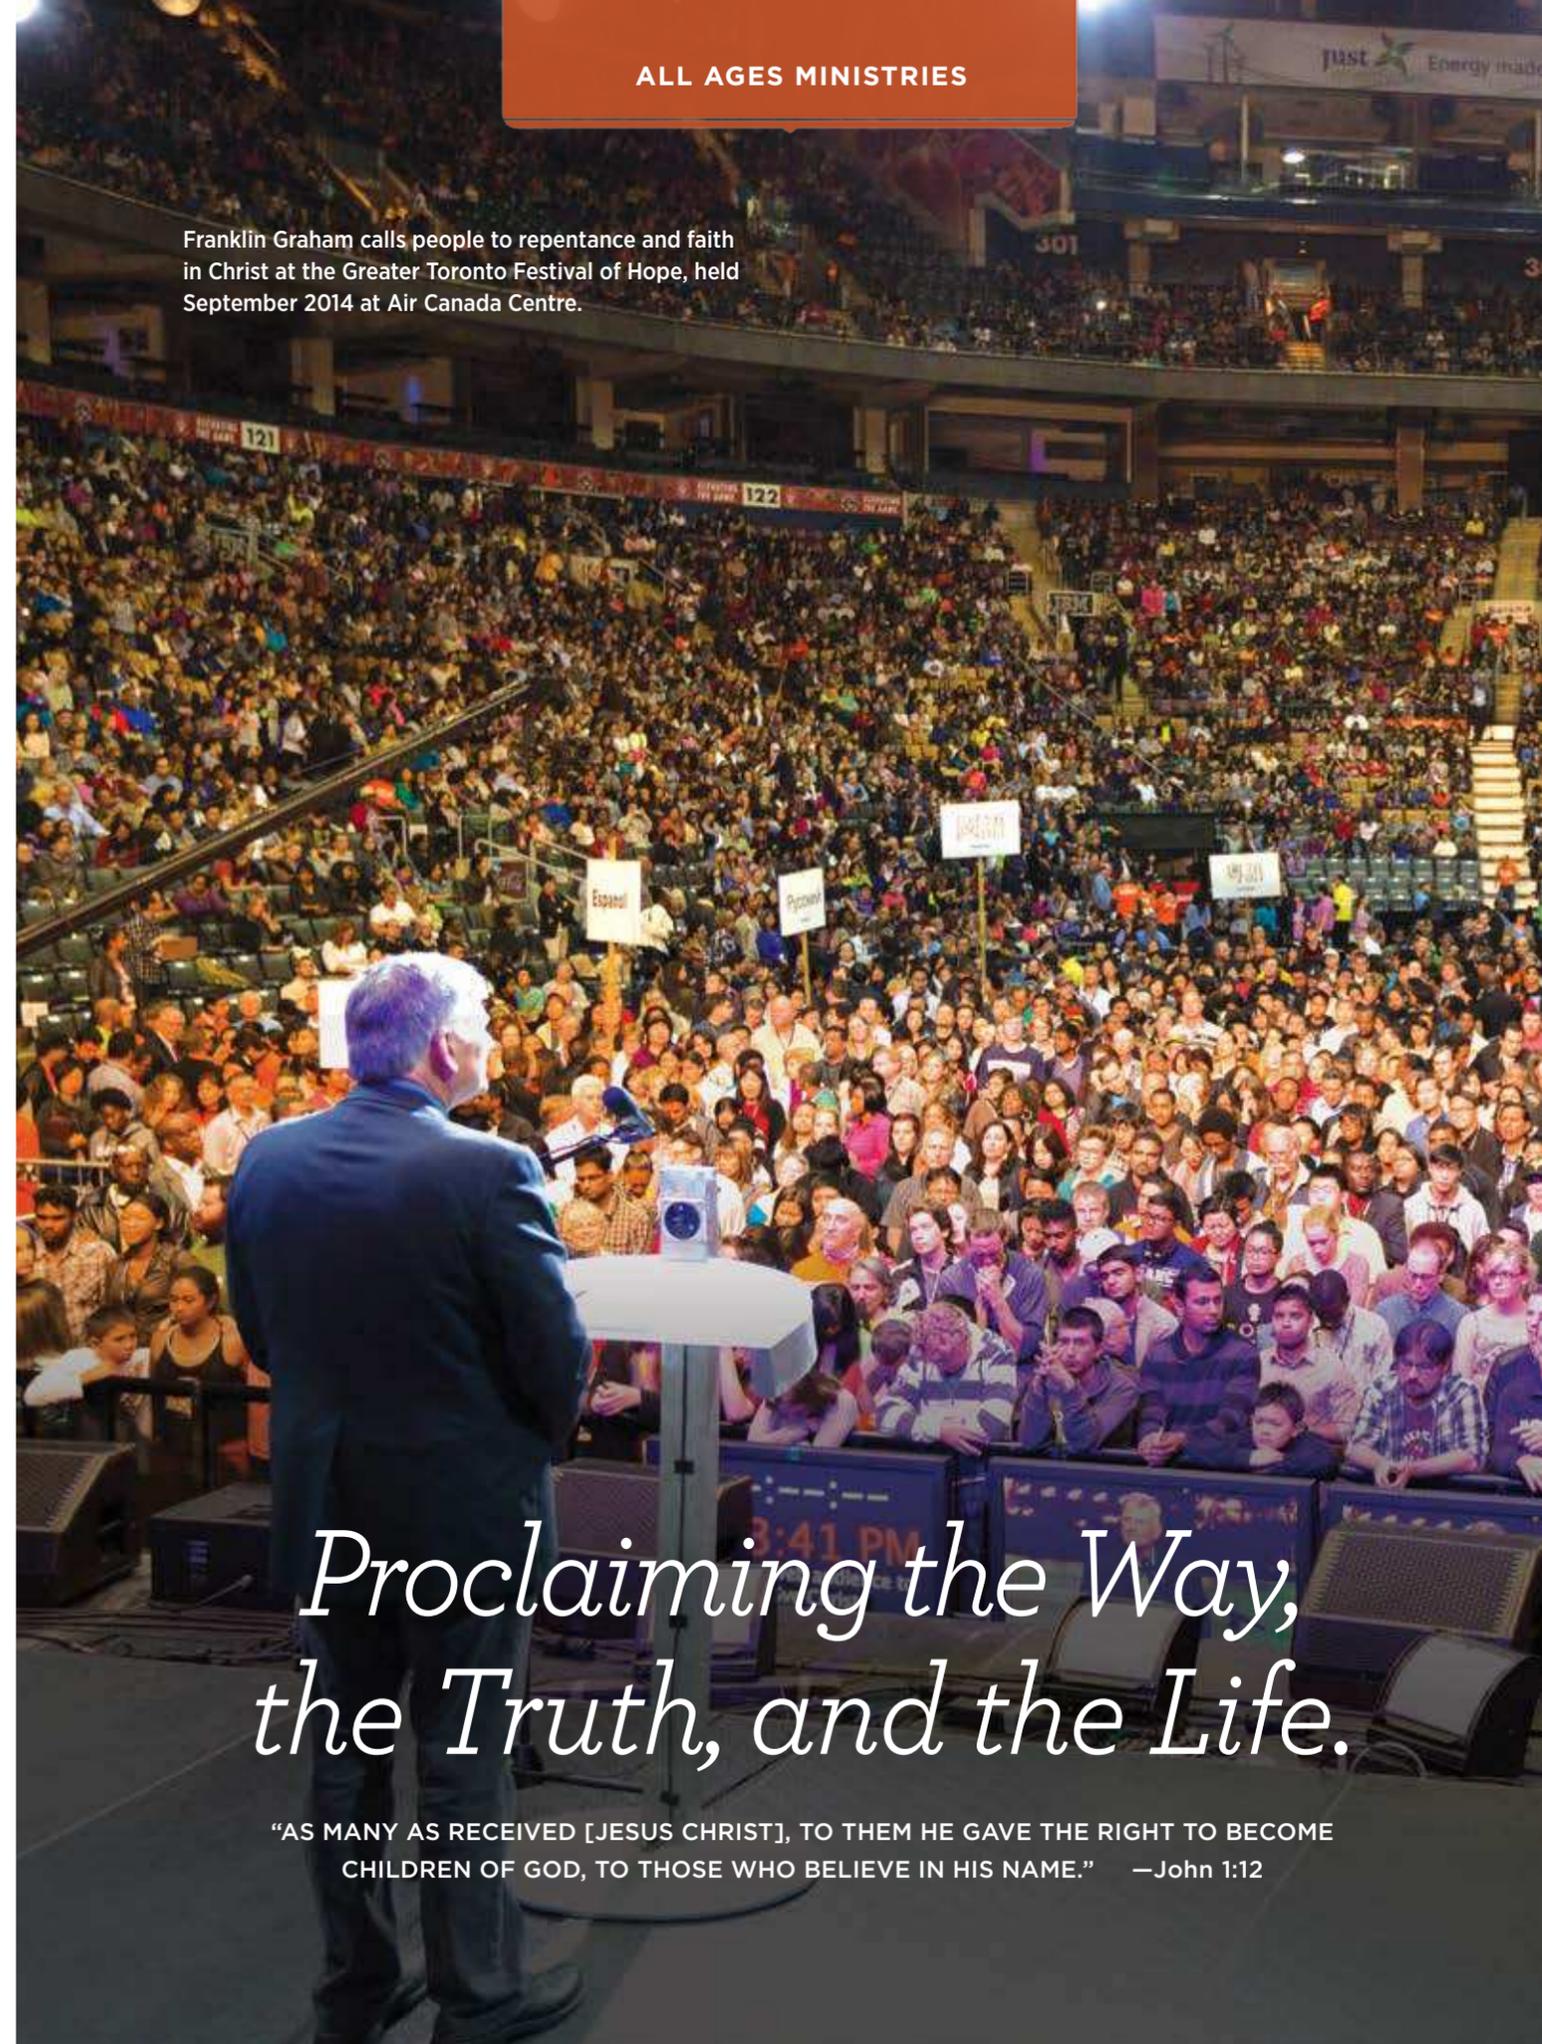

Sincerely,

Franklin Graham
President

Franklin Graham calls people to repentance and faith in Christ at the Greater Toronto Festival of Hope, held September 2014 at Air Canada Centre.

Proclaiming the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

"AS MANY AS RECEIVED [JESUS CHRIST], TO THEM HE GAVE THE RIGHT TO BECOME CHILDREN OF GOD, TO THOSE WHO BELIEVE IN HIS NAME." —John 1:12

BGEA takes Jesus Christ at His word when He says in Mark 16:15, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.” In response, our evangelistic events have spanned the globe with one purpose—to share God’s love with people who need Christ. Franklin Graham, his son Will, and our associate evangelists take the Gospel to hundreds of thousands of people every year. Each event engages churches across an entire region to reach into their communities and then to follow up by discipling those who made life-changing commitments to Jesus Christ.

EVANGELISTIC EVENTS

One of the most impactful Billy Graham Evangelistic Association events of 2014 was the Greater Toronto Festival of Hope with Franklin Graham.

Almost 40,000 people attended outreach events Sept. 12-14 at Air Canada Centre. Each night, the arena (home to the NHL’s Maple Leafs and NBA’s Raptors) looked like a United Nations event.

Because of Toronto’s ethnic diversity, Franklin Graham’s messages were translated into six languages—Cantonese, Mandarin, Spanish, Farsi, Arabic, and Russian. In addition, trained local counselors were available in each language to pray for those who jammed the arena floor in response to invitations to repent of their sins and commit their lives to Jesus Christ.

The Festival also attracted more than 77,000 viewers from over 140 countries who watched each night online through live webstreaming. We continue to rejoice at the results.

God brought more than 1,700 people to faith in His Son at the Festival. Online, 1,690 indicated they had prayed the prayer of salvation.

“It feels good,” said 16-year-old Zachary, who attended the Festival with a youth group and dedicated his life to Christ. “God cares about me, because He has all these counselors here [to walk people through faith commitments]. With Jesus, I can overcome anything.”

Even before the Festival outreach events began, over 1,400 people made faith commitments in response to Gospel presentations at several training and community outreach events held earlier in the year. We praise God for every soul who has turned to Christ.

Other Franklin Graham Festivals took place in El Paso, TX; Sapporo, Japan; Tbilisi, Georgia; Warsaw, Poland; and Pittsburgh, PA. In total, more than 159,000 heard the Good News through these outreaches, and almost 9,000 responded by publicly committing their lives to Christ.

Meanwhile, from the outback of Australia to the remote mountains of Papua New Guinea and the far corners of Asia, Will Graham—the third generation of the Graham family to proclaim the Gospel under the BGEA banner—conducted numerous evangelistic events during 2014.

All told, more than 84,000 people attended Will’s Celebrations, and more than 10,500 of them responded by surrendering their lives to Jesus Christ.

Preparations are well underway for the 2015 Will Graham Celebration of Hope tour that will include stops in Siksika First Nation, AB (Oct. 15); Whitehorse, YT (Oct. 16-17); and Fort McMurray, AB (Nov. 14-15).

Training events have already happened in all three communities, and there is great excitement about what the Lord is doing there.

BGEA Associate Evangelist Robert Cunville spent much of 2014 tirelessly preaching the Gospel across India—from a remote village in Nagaland to the city of Jaipur, a Hindu stronghold with a population of more than three million.

An estimated 121,800 people heard the message of salvation through Christ during the year at Robert's 12 Festivals of Peace. More than 8,340 people made life-changing commitments to Christ, while many thousands more came forward to seek additional information about becoming a Christian and to request prayer.

Associate Evangelist David Ruiz preached "the grace of God that brings salvation" (Titus 2:11) during Festivals of Peace in Portoviejo, Ecuador; Tuxtla Gutiérrez, Mexico; and Toluca, Mexico. More than 44,950 people attended these three outreaches, with over 3,630 pledging their hearts and lives to Jesus Christ.

TV TELEPHONE MINISTRY

For North Americans coming to faith in Jesus Christ, BGEA's TV Telephone Ministry (TVTM) continues to be an important connection point. TVTM provides spiritual support and information to people who watch BGEA telecasts and then call the toll-free number on their TV screens.

In 2014, volunteers at call centers in Calgary and Winnipeg responded to almost 1,600 calls (45 percent more than in 2013).

We praise God that more than 400 of those calls resulted in people dedicating or rededicating their lives to Christ. As of May 31 this year, over 450 calls were received, with almost 160 dedications or rededications.

BILLY GRAHAM LIBRARY

The 40,000-square-foot Billy Graham Library in Charlotte, NC, has drawn more than 900,000 visitors from almost 90 countries since its 2007 opening. Offering free admission, the main facility houses six historical multimedia exhibits, four galleries of memorabilia and artifacts, and two theaters—all on eight landscaped hectares.

There, guests encounter the Gospel throughout their visit. Every aspect of the Library is designed to proclaim God's love and forgiveness, found only through faith in Jesus Christ.

In 2014, the Library welcomed more than 144,300 visitors—approximately 4,300 more than the previous year. It drew diverse audiences by hosting numerous special events, including book signings with Joni Eareckson Tada, recording artist Ricky Skaggs, Duck Dynasty's Phil and Kay Robertson, and renowned Christian author Max Lucado. Our most-attended event, Christmas at the Library, drew more than 43,700 people.

b Everyone enters the Billy Graham Library at the foot of the cross, and more than 1,700 people made life-changing commitments to Christ during their visit in 2014.

Most visitors took The Journey of Faith tour, the highlight of the Library experience. The tour covers important events and developments in Billy Graham's remarkable life in service to the Lord Jesus Christ.

RESPONSE CENTER & CHRISTIAN GUIDANCE

BGEA's Christian Guidance and Response ministry is a primary voice of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, answering more than 226,900 phone calls, letters, and emails in 2014.

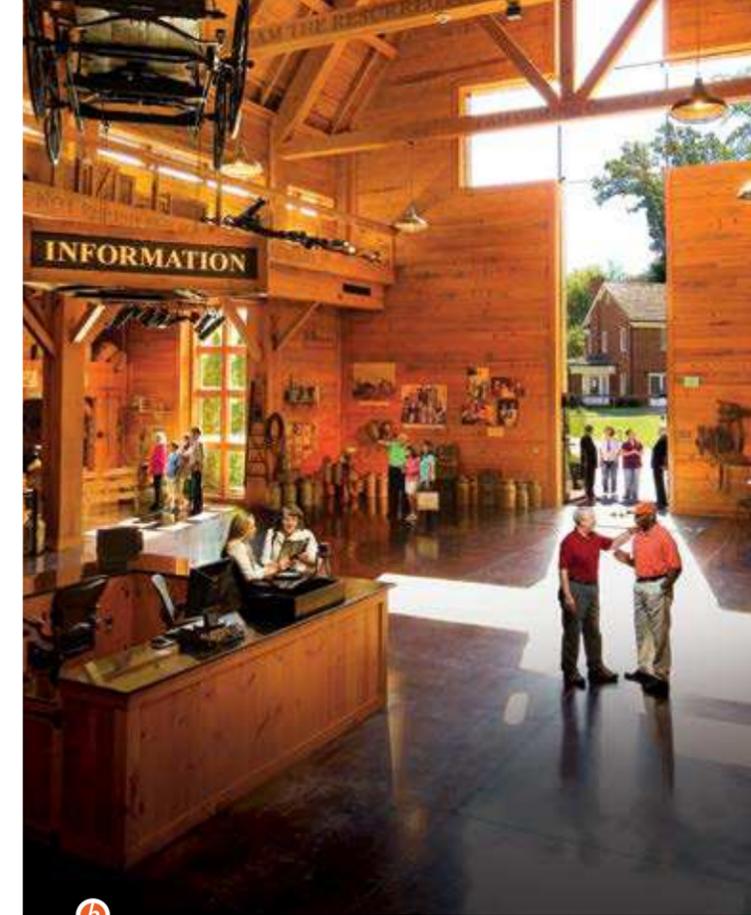

Our representatives responded to callers with the love of Christ through words of encouragement, prayer, spiritual guidance, and the latest information on BGEA ministries—including upcoming Festivals and Celebrations, the Search for Jesus online evangelism outreach, and the My Hope with Billy Graham video ministry. Incoming spiritual calls were primarily from viewers of Billy Graham Classics TV programs and listeners to BGEA radio broadcasts.

During 2014, our representatives were privileged to pray with more than 23,900 callers as a personal, one-on-one ministry. We give thanks to God that 602 of them indicated having repentant hearts and will "obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory" (2 Timothy 2:10).

DECISION MAGAZINE

During 2014, Decision magazine continued to reflect its purpose as "The Evangelical Voice of Today." The award-winning monthly is increasingly recognized as one of the foremost publications calling Christians in Canada and around the world to stand strong for Jesus Christ and against the growing godlessness in the culture around us.

In 2014, the Canadian edition of Decision had an average circulation of 11,700 copies per issue.

To subscribe, or to renew your subscription, please call 1-800-293-3717. A subscription to Decision is also an excellent gift for someone you wish to bless and encourage.

Equipping Christians to reach their nations.

“HOPE IN THE LORD; FOR WITH THE LORD THERE IS MERCY, AND
WITH HIM IS ABUNDANT REDEMPTION.” —Psalm 130:7

My Hope is an international initiative that encourages and equips local churches around the world to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Each year, BGEA produces short videos that congregations and individuals use to draw large numbers of friends, family members, and neighbors to hear the Gospel.

In 2014, My Hope took place for the second consecutive year in Canada and the United States and was initiated for the first time in the United Kingdom.

As Easter approached, churches in North America were encouraged to utilize the aptly themed video The Cross, which had been released the year before, reaching millions of people with the Gospel.

Later in 2014, BGEA produced Heaven, a 30-minute program featuring Billy Graham himself, plus new and powerful testimonies of lives changed through faith in Jesus Christ. Almost 18,000 Heaven DVDs were distributed for free across Canada, after being paid for by BGEA donors.

“The video was very well received,” reported James Lim, senior pastor at Praise International Church. His church hosted a special showing of

“We had an altar call at the end and invited people to respond by raising their hands, and we had about 10 in Vancouver and 20 in Surrey. We were expecting a good response, but this was amazing.”

More than 425 Canadian churches participated in My Hope in 2014, and nearly 800 Canadians dedicated or rededicated their lives to Christ after watching Heaven. As of the end of May 2015, almost 500 churches are participating in My Hope and more than 400 Canadians have committed or recommitted their lives to Christ through the ministry.

BGEA of Canada has also created a French version of Heaven and is using it in 2015 to help Quebec churches and Christians to reach out to people who need Christ. A version with English sub-titles is available on the BGEAC website.

If you or your church did not participate in My Hope in 2014, you can take part this year. Even if your congregation was part of the 2013 or 2014 outreaches, we encourage you to participate again using the new materials. To view the videos, learn more, and get your church involved, please visit MyHopeWithBillyGraham.ca

"I WAS FOUND BY THOSE WHO DID NOT SEEK ME; I WAS MADE MANIFEST TO THOSE WHO DID NOT ASK FOR ME." —Romans 10:20

During 2014, BGEA continued to use every media option available to us to invite lost people around the world to come to Jesus Christ and find new life in Him. Through the Internet and social media, God expanded our reach to take this one message to more than 235 countries and territories.

Our website, MyPeaceWithGod.ca, started in 2014 because today, millions of people take life's big questions to the Internet. Using search engines, they ask things like: "Am I loved?" "Is there a God?" "What's my purpose?"

Through MyPeaceWithGod.ca, they are directed to real hope with compelling, interactive Gospel presentations that address their concerns. Visitors are then invited to surrender their lives to Christ and to indicate if they did so. If they click to indicate they want to know more about Jesus or have questions, they are connected to trained Christian volunteers who can share the hope of the Gospel through email.

We rejoice that in 2014, MyPeaceWithGod.ca was visited more than 62,000 times, with almost 8,000 people telling us they had prayed the prayer of salvation. 63,600 visits were already recorded up to the end of May 2015.

SearchForJesus.ca, a companion website designed for Christians and churches who want to support MyPeaceWithGod.ca and become trained volunteers, was viewed almost 500 times in 2014 and nearly 280 times to the end of May 2015. Through this website, you can watch a 3-D map that shows, in real time, people around the world making decisions for Christ through BGEA.

Worldwide, BGEA's PeaceWithGod.net ministry connected with more than 6.8 million people, with almost 210,000 giving us their contact information so we could follow up with them.

Our main website—BillyGraham.ca—was visited more than 120,000 times in 2014. Much of this was due to the Greater Toronto Festival of Hope and live streaming of the three nights of outreach.

The site was viewed almost 3,200 more times to May 31, 2015. BillyGraham.ca includes information on BGEA of Canada ministries and training opportunities, articles from back issues of Decision magazine, and My Hope video programs.

In addition, FestivalOfHope.ca was visited over 106,000 times in 2014. This was one of the main avenues for us to connect with people in southern Ontario who were interested in the Greater Toronto Festival of Hope. Even now, people can visit the website and find out how God changed lives in the Greater Toronto Area.

MyHopeWithBillyGraham.ca (and its French counterpart, MonEspoirAvecBillyGraham.ca) was visited more than 15,000 times in 2014 and nearly 3,200 more times by May 31, 2015. The website continues to offer churches and Christians valuable resources to reach their communities with the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ. These resources include the videos Heaven, Lose To Gain, The Cross, and Defining Moments. Some of them are also available in French.

This year, CelebrationOfHope.ca is one of the most important ways for people in Siksika First Nation, AB; Whitehorse, YT; and Fort McMurray, AB, to get information about BGEA of Canada's Celebration of Hope with Will Graham that is happening in their communities. The site has been visited more than 2,700 times this year, up to May 31. □

Reaching children to reach their friends.

“JESUS ANSWERED AND SAID, ‘I THANK YOU, FATHER, LORD OF HEAVEN AND EARTH, THAT YOU HAVE HIDDEN THESE THINGS FROM THE WISE AND PRUDENT AND HAVE REVEALED THEM TO [CHILDREN].’” —Matthew 11:25

Picture the significance of children and young people coming to Christ, growing in Him, and sharing their faith with their friends. BGEA remains committed to seeing this happen by helping church leaders, teachers, and parents spread the hope of the Gospel to—and through—our youth. In 2014, we saw continued growth with our discipleship and evangelism training programs.

DARE TO BE A DANIEL

Dare to Be a Daniel (D2BD) is an evangelism training course that equips children ages 9–14 with the life skills, tools, and confidence to share Christ with their friends and peers.

It's available in 5-lesson and 13-lesson kits, which are ideal for Sunday school, vacation Bible schools, Christian summer camps, and other group applications.

“At our church, we always wanted something for our tweens; then I read about Dare to Be a Daniel and told my pastor about it,” said Janet Breikreutz, who's in charge of small group coaches at her Edmonton church. “We're trying to keep kids in church, and D2BD is helping. They really like it—they even ask for it. It's very good about helping kids to not cave in to peer pressure.”

Generous Canadian donors have enabled BGEA of Canada to give away a limited number of these kits to churches that are committed to raising the next generation of evangelists. Kits can also be purchased by calling 1-800-293-3717.

In addition, Dare to Be a Daniel is available at LeDefiDeDaniel.ca for French-speaking churches and individuals.

THE GREATEST JOURNEY

In 2014, BGEA launched The Greatest Journey in Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom, and Australia. This 12-session Bible study was created to help children ages 6–10 become faithful followers of Jesus and is designed for home use, Sunday school, or children's outreach in developed nations.

The Greatest Journey was adapted from the Samaritan's Purse curriculum of the same name, which God has used in conjunction with Operation Christmas Child to bring more than one million children to faith in His Son in over 100 countries.

Thanks to donations from Canadians like you, a limited number of The Greatest Journey kits have been given to interested churches. Available in a variety of forms, kits can also be purchased. Please visit BillyGraham.ca/TGJ to learn more and to download a free sample lesson. □

"LEAD ME IN YOUR TRUTH AND TEACH ME, FOR YOU ARE THE GOD
OF MY SALVATION; ON YOU I WAIT ALL THE DAY." —Psalm 25:5

Providing Christians with the skills and confidence to proclaim the Gospel continues to be a vital part of our mission. During 2014, evangelism training was a significant part of the Greater Toronto Festival of Hope.

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND WITNESS & FM419 CLASSES

At the Greater Toronto Festival of Hope, more than 1,350 students and youth leaders attended two youth training weekends. We rejoice that 92 first-time decisions for Christ were made, along with 338 rededications.

Over 3,200 people of all ages attended Christian Life and Witness Course (CLWC) trainings at almost 30 locations. At these classes, God brought more than 180 people to faith in His Son, with over 570 renewing their commitments to Christ.

CLWC helps Christians grasp key biblical principles that form a solid foundation for their faith. Through this, instructors show how to build a victorious Christian life and share that life with others.

In 2015, CLWC is part of the Celebration of Hope with Will Graham, taking place in Siksika First Nation, AB; Whitehorse, YT; and Fort McMurray, AB. As of May 31 this year, 11 churches and more than 250 people had participated in CLWC training in Whitehorse. CLWC training has also happened in Siksika and is scheduled for October in Fort McMurray.

FM419, the youth version of CLWC, took place in May 2015 in Whitehorse. More than 100 people from at least six churches participated, with 11 making decisions for Christ or rededications to Him. FM419 in Fort McMurray is to occur later this year.

RECONNEXION

REconneXion is a practical and inspirational BGEA of Canada one-day seminar that provides the tools to increase the influence pastors and church leaders can achieve in their communities. Nine seminars, attended by more than 250 people, have been held across Canada in 2014 and so far in 2015. More seminars are being organized for autumn 2015.

MY HOPE

Training Christians to be "Matthews" and share their faith in Christ through special video viewing events is a key part of My Hope with Billy Graham. We rejoice that in 2014, almost 2,000 people attended My Hope training events across Canada, with almost 780 making dedications or rededications to Christ.

BILLY GRAHAM TRAINING CENTER AT THE COVE

For more than 25 years, the Billy Graham Training Center at The Cove in Asheville, NC, has encouraged and refreshed believers and empowered them to influence their world for the glory of God.

In 2014, more than 30,100 Cove attendees participated in a total of 308 Seminar, Guest Group, and Personal Spiritual Retreat events. We praise God that more than 4,100 people made commitments to major life changes in areas including their family, career, ministry, and most importantly, their relationship with Jesus Christ. This was a 5.5-percent increase over 2013. □

Sharing the hope of Christ in the midst of crisis.

“THE LORD IS NEAR TO THOSE WHO HAVE A BROKEN HEART,
AND SAVES SUCH AS HAVE A CONTRITE SPIRIT.” —Psalm 34:18

In a world where disaster is certain, the Billy Graham Rapid Response Team (RRT) responds in two ways: by training a force of believers to respond with spiritual and emotional care, and by deploying volunteer chaplains anywhere in the world to offer God’s hope to victims and first-responders.

During 2014, BGEA responded to ice storms, mudslides, tornadoes, floods, shootings, and civil unrest with 342 RRT chaplain deployments to 17 disaster sites.

Our chaplains assisted more than 43,000 victims by year’s end and prayed with over 10,000 individuals. We are grateful to God and give Him all the glory for the thousands of people comforted in Jesus’ Name, and for the 415 people who responded to the hope of the Gospel with “repentance toward God and faith [in] our Lord Jesus Christ” (Acts 20:21).

In Canada, almost 90 volunteer RRT chaplains responded to natural disasters and crisis situations in four provinces.

Eight chaplains prayed with victims of spring flooding in Sussex Corner, NB, and Belleville, ON.

In April, following the stabbing deaths of five University of Calgary students, almost 20 RRT a When RRT’s chaplains quickly deployed to Ferguson, Missouri, the Rapid Response Team mobile command truck—used as a ministry center—was stationed daily in a parking lot on the street where the rioting had occurred.

chaplains spent eight days comforting students, staff, and first-responders with the love of Christ. This was the first time chaplains responded on their own, rather than as part of a Samaritan’s Purse disaster response. Chaplains also supported Calgarians who visited an informal memorial at the crime scene and who attended the victims’ funerals and prayer services.

In June, five chaplains went to Moncton, NB, to comfort and pray with residents and first-responders after five Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers were shot, three of them fatally.

In July and August, eight chaplains went to Melville, SK, and Burlington, ON, after flooding damaged many homes.

“Many times, we’re the first time that they let the tears fall,” said chaplain Janet Voth, who was deployed in Melville. “Victims often feel that they have to stay strong for the people around them. It feels like we give them permission to grieve, to feel the pain.”

A total of 40 chaplains were also deployed at Samaritan’s Purse’s Operation Christmas Child shoebox processing centers in Calgary, Toronto, and Kitchener, ON. Over three weeks in November and December, they prayed with more than 230 volunteers and staff members. Chaplains will be assigned to the processing centers again in late 2015. **□

The Bible to be the infallible Word of God, that it is His holy and inspired Word, and that it is of supreme and final authority

In one God, eternally existing in three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

Jesus Christ was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary

He led a sinless life, took on Himself all our sins, died and rose again, and is seated at the right hand of the Father as our mediator and advocate

That all men everywhere are lost and face the judgment of God, and need to come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ through His shed blood on the cross

That Christ rose from the dead and is coming soon

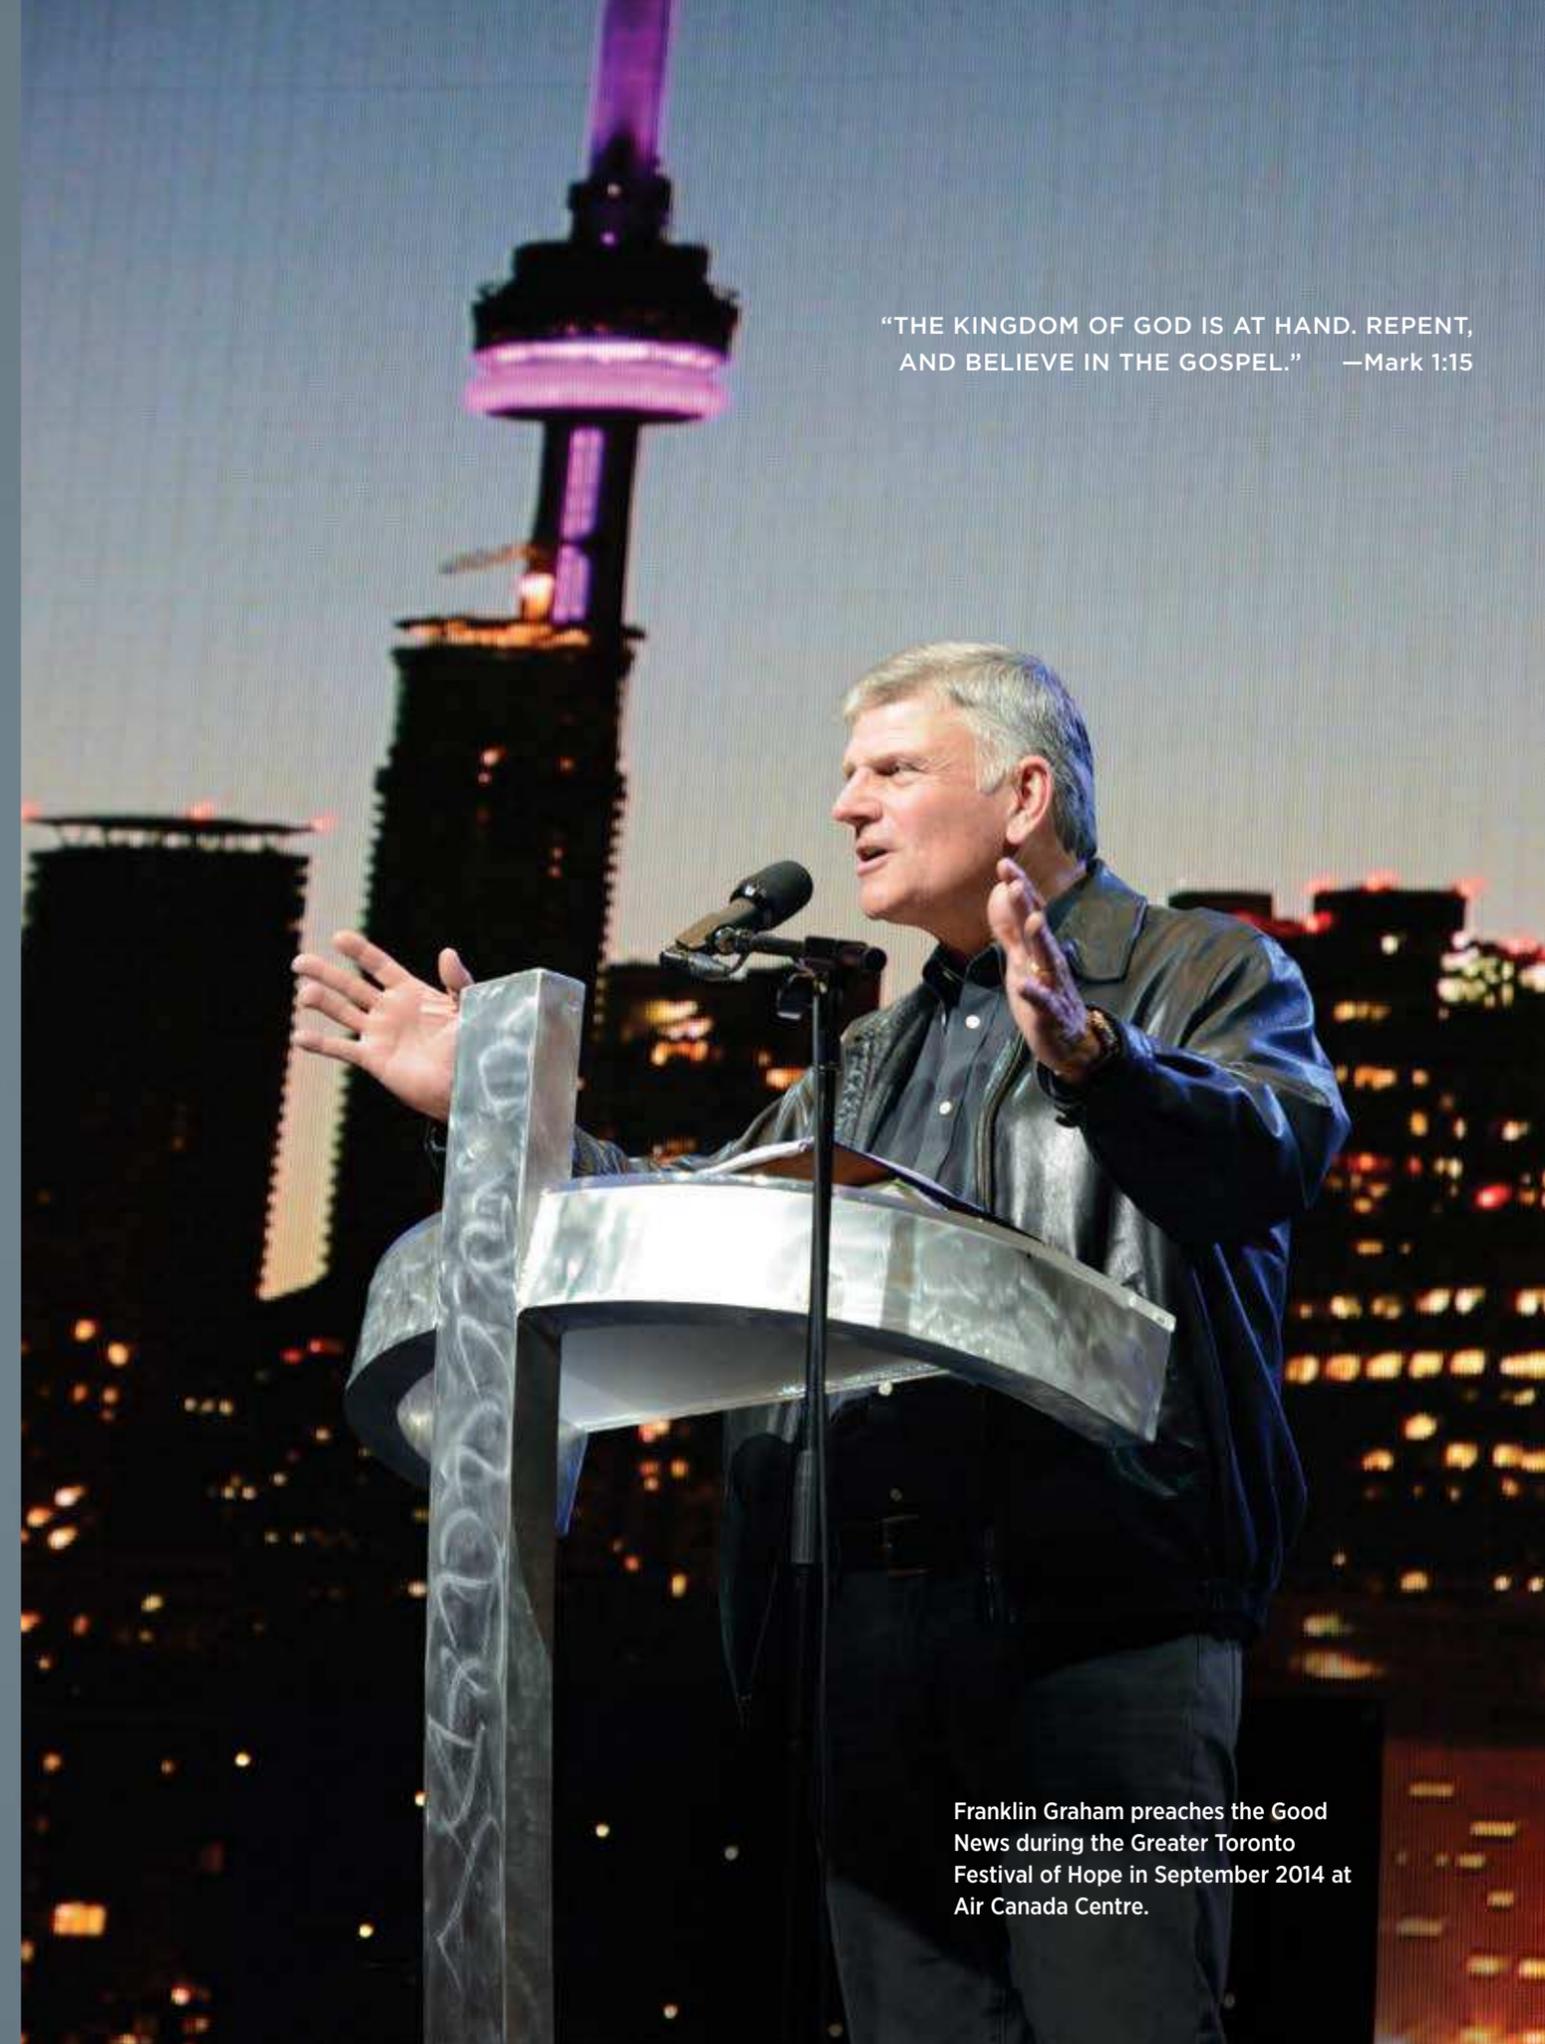

In holy Christian living, and that we must have concern for the hurts and social needs of our fellowmen

We must dedicate ourselves anew to the service of our Lord and to His authority over our lives

In using every modern means of communication available to us to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world
